think it is leap year for they have commenced asking the boys to take them home. Will Spry makes a trip to Elk Creek every Sunday now; look out Will for Samps has a dog. Children's Day, at Gibsons school-house, on June 11th was a success. The children acquitted themselves royally, and gracefully in singing, and speaking; the house was crowded but we found plenty of standing room outside; why not build larger school houses? We like to see children enjoy themselves, for if in the life of mankind there is ever, "Bliss Without Alloy," it is in childhood. When childhood ends, and the care-of life weigh us down, then life is not worth the L. E. Gibson, white returning from one of his neighbors during a thunder shower, a few nights ago, had a close call: the lightning struck so close behind him and his pony, that he was stunned and didn't get over the effects of it all next day We have had some fine rains in this vicinity and wheat is looking splendid, but the hot winds on Sunday 18th inst. was hard on wheat and oats.

The hot winds were from the southwest, and were terrible, as hot winds generally are. A great many people, went to the South Loup to find a cool place, and take a swim, when we went home in the cool of the evening, we felt pretty clean, but left a dirty river behind us. One nau had a run-a way but no damage was done. W. H. Spry waile riding along the river road the other night, came is colision with a barb-wirefence; it was dark and the pony was on a lively trot. Will was surprised to find himself and pony piled up on the other side; the pony tore the hide off of its knee, and Will Hupped a little.

We are sorry to learn of the disastrous hall torm at Miller recently, but as many were in sured we hope their loss will not be great. Now 1 the time for the hall insurance companys to prove their fair dealing to the doubtful farmers that are afraid to insure for fear of some financial trap being set to catch them.
